

50TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

THE ROSS HISTORICAL SOCIETY / MOYA LIBRARY

invites you to a “First Friday Forenoon” program

The New Deal - North Bay

President Franklin Roosevelt intended his work relief agencies to extricate the U.S. from the Great Depression but their public works also catapulted the nation into the mid-twentieth century while improving the lives of millions and generations to follow. Dr. Gray Brechin is the founder and Project Scholar of the Living New Deal which is excavating the remains of a lost civilization that is at once indispensable and everywhere, but largely invisible.
